

the Pennsylvania line. The bill entitled, an act to provide for electing commissioners for Cecil county, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed at the present session of the legislature. The bill for the benefit of Sally Elzey and Wm. Long, of Somerset county. And the further supplement to an act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from the cross roads, near Richard Caten's lime kiln, in Baltimore county, nearly in the direction of Jones' Falls to the city of Baltimore, severally endorsed 'will pass.'

Also, the bill for the benefit of the proprietors of certain lots on Jones Falls, in the city of Baltimore, endorsed will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed.

In the first section of the bill, after the words 'be it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland,' strike out all that follows, and insert in lieu thereof, 'that the street or public highway of the width of 20 feet, laid off on the east side or margin of Jones' Falls from Market or Baltimore street to Water street be closed up, except so much thereof as is a part and continuation of Ploughman street, Still House Alley and Stable Alley at their junction with the Falls, provided that the Mayor and City Council shall give their assent to the closing up of said street, on or before the first day of March 1829.

Sec. 2 And be it enacted, that in case the Mayor and City Council shall not, on or before the day and year aforesaid, approve the closing up of said street or highway as aforesaid, then the owner or owners of the lots wherein said street or highway is located, whenever said street or highway is hereafter opened, shall be allowed damages for any improvement made or erected after the first day of March 1829 on their respective lots, and which improvements may be destroyed or impaired in value by the opening of the street aforesaid, any thing in the act of December session 1817, chapter 148. or in any other act of assembly to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless that no owner or owners of any of said lots shall be allowed any damages for improvements thus to be made or erected, after the first day of March 1829, unless before commencing said improvements the said owner or owners shall have given notice once a week for four successive weeks in at least two of the daily newspapers of the city of Baltimore, setting forth, that under an by virtue of this act, the said owner or owners would proceed to make improvements on said owner or own-